Commissioner's Regulation 3007.05. Forms of Identification Accepted:

A participant shall present one of the following forms of identification immediately before admittance to a live presentation of an offering or, immediately before the administration of the final examination for a correspondence offering:

- a) A current California driver's license.
- b) A current identification card described in Section 13000 of the California Vehicle Code
- c) Any identification of the participant issued by a governmental agency or a recognized real estate related trade organization within the immediately preceding five years which bears a photograph, signature and identification number of the participant.

Course Description:

The curriculum was written by Shell Brodnax, President/CEO of the Real Estate Staging Association, Inc. ® (RESA®). RESA® is the trade association for professional home stagers. RESA is the portal to the real estate staging industry and provides education and resources for professional home stagers in addition to providing education to home owners and real estate professionals on the benefits of home staging. RESA® also serves as a resource for consumer protection with regard to the staging industry.

The course is a two-hour lunch and learn. Time will be allowed for questions and answers.
